The front entrance is an important part of your home's curb appeal. Regardless of the architectural style of your home, you can create a welcoming atmosphere with the right combination of landscaping and container gardening.

Beautiful landscaping adds lots of charm. However, one common mistake many people make is mixing too many colors into the landscaping. By doing this, it is hard to know where to focus and it is hard to see along the entire border. A better approach is to select one main color scheme and stick with it. Using the same plants and the same colors will create a natural flow.

No matter the size of your front porch, the right landscaping will add intrinsic value to any home. Porch landscaping will improve your home's curb appeal and add aesthetic value.

Whether you are looking for sophisticated landscaping ideas or simple ones that won't break the bank, take a look at the next page to see how you can easily transform your porch and home from ordinary to be the envy of the neighborhood.

Happy Landscaping!
